St. John Lutheran Church

February 2026 Newsletter

As a community of believers in Jesus Christ, inspired by the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, the mission of St. John Lutheran Church is to:
WORSHIP, WITNESS, LEARN, SERVE and SUPPORT.

An Uncomplicated Lent

Teri Talk February 2026 "An Invitation to an Uncomplicated Lent"

During Lent of 2026, you are invited to join congregations of the Central States Synod for "An Uncomplicated Lent."[1] This is an invitation for God's people to let go of the all the "stuff" that consumes our time, energy, resources, and spirit, and to go back to the basics: life-giving relationships with God and neighbor.

Life is... complicated. Like weights added to a backpack one at a time, commitments, health concerns, compulsions, escapes, and emotions get added to our load. They consume time, resources, emotion, and energy. Before we know it, they are crushing us.

We are not alone. Our ancestors spent 40 years wandering in the Exodus wilderness. It took time and practice to reorient their lives--to let go of the effects of slavery and learn to live with God and one another. But yet again, the weights slowly piled up and consumed them. They later spent 70 years in Exile releasing those weights and remembering who they were and what was important.

It takes time and discipline. When life gets overwhelming (again and again), God calls us to uncomplicate things. And so, the church enters the season of Lent every year as a sort of spring cleaning. We spend 40 days (plus 6 Sundays) intentionally letting go of the things that are life-taking and focusing on the relationships with God and other people that are life-giving.
From Ash Wednesday, February 18 through Easter Sunday, April 5, you are invited to participate in these practices to uncomplicate life….

Let Go - The Practice of "Fasting"

A common practice is to "Give up" something for Lent. Consider using this process:
- Take time to think about what sucks the life out of you and distracts from relationships.
- Focus on the compulsions rather than activities. Look beyond just social media, chocolate, being late, or swearing. What's going on in you behind those things? Escapism or FOMO (fear of missing out), self-indulgence or depression, self-importance or taking on too much, callousness or anger? Make a list of the activities you engage in that feed those life-taking compulsions.
- Give it a few days. Pay attention each day to increase your awareness of what is daily sucking the life out of you.
- Pray about it. Discuss it with God and listen for God's nudging.
- Be accountable. Create a visible reminder (your phone, fridge, etc.) and ask a companion to check in and annoyingly remind you.

Admittedly, it appears counterproductive to add activities to uncomplicate life. However, letting go is just one step to well-being. Without life-giving practices in place, we just fill the space with different draining ones.

Embrace God - The Practice of Prayer

Like any relationship, spending time with God strengthens our connection. Consider:
- Regular Sunday morning worship - If your attendance is sporadic, commit now to being in worship all 5 weeks of Lent and Holy Week.
- Daily Devotional - Set aside 10 minutes each day to breathe, read the Bible, reflect, and pray using a guided devotional.

Engage People - The Practice of Charity

YOU are a beautiful blessing and gift. Consider how you might give YOURSELF to others--your presence, attention, talents, time, energy, and emotion. Make a plan to do each of these through Easter. Put the dates/times on your calendar now.
- Connect with those closest to you every day. Eat at the table, send a midday text, put down your phone, have a conversation in the car, give a hug, or whatever fits you best.
- Gather once a week with someone outside your household. Eat, play, talk, or do all three. Keep it simple. If hosting complicates it, meet at a restaurant or coffee shop.
- Send a note each week to someone you haven't spoken to in a while. It could be handwritten, email, text, or via social media. Start with, "I was thinking about you today."

Whenever and however you gather, KEEP IT SIMPLE, so you don't end up putting it off.
Have a discussion with someone else: "What was life-giving for you today/this week?"

When you reach Easter this year, may you find yourself with Jesus, renewed and full of life.

Blessings,
Pastor Teri

Welcome Our New Staff

On January 29, 2026 in a special meeting, the Church Council approved offering the position of Administrative Assistant to Kelvie Reeves and she has accepted! We are so excited to welcome Kelvie as our newest staff.

She will begin training on February 3rd, and this will be a time of transition with volunteers continuing to assist in the office. We will also be transitioning to new daily office hours for the church, approved by the Church Council.

The NEW office hours, beginning Monday, February 16, 2026 will be 1:30 pm – 5:00 pm.

I am so very grateful for the willingness of many people to help cover the church office over these last couple of months, your time and assistance has been invaluable. Carol Fritz did an outstanding job organizing and lining up daily coverage for the office. A heartfelt thank you to Carol, Mary Boxberger, Janella Eck, Denise Guth, Glenna Hackerott, Ruth Keil, and John Dumler. You all have been a true blessing to the work of our church.

We extend our gratitude to Sheryl Krug for her six years of service as the office Administrative Assistant and pray for restoration and healing for her health concerns.

The Altar Guild Wants You!

There are many different ministries you can be involved in here at St. John, and one of those vital ministries is the Altar Guild. Those who serve on the Altar Guild are those behind the scene people who create the inspirational setting of our worship experience. Altar Guild is a great way to be involved in the church and doesn't require a lot of your time. You only serve 3 to 4 times in a year and can select when you would like to do that. Altar Guild helps to create a beautiful worship setting in the chapel and sanctuary during Easter and Christmas by placing Easter Lilies and Poinsettias in the worship space. Decorating the church for Advent and Christmas. Preparing and serving Holy Communion, and assisting with and being present during important times in the lives of congregational members like baptisms, weddings and funerals. Anyone of any age can serve on Altar Guild! This is not just a ministry of adult women – men and youth are welcome to serve. The only requirement is your willingness to volunteer! So Come and see and join in!!!

Caring for Our Neighbors - Donation Opportunities

Weekly St. John receives letters from different organizations and ministries that are in need of financial support. This month we are highlighting two of these ministries whose needs increase during the winter months due to the severity of the weather in their areas.

Navajo Evangelical Lutheran Mission
Proclaiming and Practicing the Love of Jesus

The Navajo Evangelical Lutheran Mission (NELM) Inc. humbly serves the Navajo community of Rock Point, AZ. Every day, our 100% Navajo staff feed the hungry, prioritize Christian and cultural learning, focus on community engagement, and work towards fulfilling basic community needs. In our spiritual and social work, we strive to embody and teach the grace of Jesus and listen to the call of the gospel to serve one another in love. About 2,000 Navajos live in Rock Point and it is roughly 50 miles to the nearest grocery store. Less than 40% of the homes in Rock Point have running water.

Invest in the lives of the Navajo children and families of Rock Point, AZ

Navajo Evangelical Lutheran Mission is a non-profit organization funded by the generosity of donors who care about the Navajo at Rock Point and wish to see them thrive. Your donations help provide Navajo families with basic means for survival, including housing, food, clean water, education, and ministerial services.

Why give to the Mission?

- The Mission School is an alternative school to Bureau of Indian Affairs and community schools throughout the Navajo Nation
- Parents choose to place their children in a school that reflects Christian values while respecting Navajo culture and tradition
- Partnership is expressed by Navajo and non-Navajo representation on a Mission Board of Directors
- Social needs are addressed by counseling, educational opportunities, and on-the-job training

How it Started

More than sixty-five years ago, Lutheran Christian missionaries arrived in Rock Point, AZ, a remote, isolated village near the Four Corners area where Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah meet. They were leased 5 acres of land on which to build the Mission. The original goals stated on the lease included starting a medical center, a mechanic shop, a radio station and a Christian boarding school. The very first building on this land was a combined church, clinic and two apartments built in early 1954.

Rock Point Mission Today

Today Rock Point has a gas station and convenience store, a laundromat and post office, high school, a chapter house and senior center –and 2000 people living on the land in family clans. Food and medical services are still more than 50 miles away, and general shopping is 115 miles away in New Mexico.

The Mission campus includes Navajo Mission Preparatory School, a K-2 private Christian school, a clinic operated by Tachiinii Nursing Services, Inc. home healthcare services, and an ELCA congregation, House of Prayer.

At the Mission, the Navajo people learn to see themselves and the church as the guiding light – but not the whole show. There are other components of the Mission (like our school, clinic, cultural center, water project, and food bank) which demonstrate our commitment to love one another.

What we do and how we assist the community is the practice of our faith in daily life. We believe this is the teaching of Jesus that holds us in the right relationship with our neighbors.

Pine Ridge Reconciliation Center

The Pine Ridge Reconciliation Center has been serving in Pine Ridge South Dakota for over 40 years. Started as a mission outreach the work of the Lutheran Lakota Ministry began in 1985. With a continuous presence since 1989. The work of the ministry has changed over the years.

The Center was a dream of Pastor Larry Peterson and built in 2000. At the center, we offer a range of services designed to provide help and hope to our community. Our Kid's program fosters growth and learning for young minds, while the Job Corp supports individuals in finding meaningful employment. The Energy Matching program assists families in managing their energy costs, and Homeless Shelter provides a safe haven for those in need. Additionally, we host groups from around the world, promoting connection and collaboration.

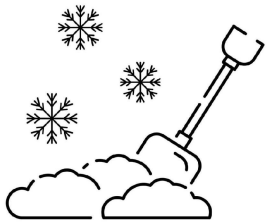
Services this weekend cancelled due to severe weather

Winter Weather Cancellation Policy

The safety and well-being of our members and staff is a primary concern so in the event of bad weather during the winter there may be times when the church will be closed, meetings cancelled, or worship services cancelled.



During the winter months, cancellations and closures may be the result of weather conditions, staff unable to get to the church, impassable roads, problems with the building, or other unforeseen situations.

Winter weather conditions may necessitate cancelling services based on street conditions, sidewalk, and parking conditions, and City of Russell plowing schedules. St. John Lutheran Church services and activities will be cancelled in the following situations:

- we are experiencing subzero temperatures or windchill,
- we have six or more inches of accumulated or new snowfall,
- we are experiencing an ice storm,
- we are experiencing a power outage,
- during week days we will follow the City of Russell/Russell Schools closure
- in rare event that local or state government declares “a state of emergency”

If the church is closed or worship is cancelled this information will be posted on the KRSL website and if possible, signs posted on the church doors. Service cancellations will be posted on KRSL.com under “Weather - Closings and Cancellations” and on the St. John Lutheran Church, Russell, KS (stjohnrussellks) Facebook (Meta) page.

If services are not cancelled, members are encouraged to use their best judgement in terms of safety for driving to services. If you have concerns about your safety for any reason, please do not drive.

If services are not cancelled, our 8:15 am and 10:30 am Sunday services are livestreamed on stjohnrussell.com. On the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month, the 10:30 am service is broadcast on KRSL 98.1 FM/990 AM.

The Journey to Easter begins with…..

As you reflect on your invitation to an Uncomplicated Lent, here are some prayer practices you might want to try:

For your personal prayer life: LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina is a way of praying with scripture. First introduced by Gregory of Nyssa in the 4th Century, lectio divina means "divine reading" in Latin. To do lectio divina, choose a passage of scripture to read three times. Although it can be used with any scripture, the psalms are a great fit. Many people find it easier to listen if someone else is reading the scripture. You can accomplish this by doing lectio divina with a friend or family member, or using an audio Bible app or online recording.

READING (LECTIO)
The first time you read the scripture, listen for a word or phrase that stands out to you. Don't think too hard about it. Don't try to figure out what you should hear. Just listen. After reading, take a moment or two to hold onto that word or phrase. Lock it into your mind and body.

REFLECT (MEDITACIO)
As you read the passage again, reflect on what you believe is God saying to you in the word or phrase that stood out to you. Don't slip into Bible study mode. Don't think about the moral of the passage. Just listen for what God saying to you right here, right now in that small part. After reading, take a moment or two to process what you've heard.

RESPOND (ORATIO)
As you read this final time, respond by considering how God might be moving you at this time. God could be prompting you to engage in dialogue, nudging you to do (or not do) something, reminding you something that can help sustain you. After reading, take a moment or two to let that urge settle into your mind and body.

REST (CONTEMPLATIO)
Now sit in the presence of God to speak, listen, and pray as you feel God moving you or as you feel you have need

Praying for Others:

I Prayed for You Today: A Prayer/Outreach Project for Lent[2]

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God." --Philippians 4:5-6

- The idea is to inspire and encourage you to pray for others; and

- Invite you and others to contact other people you know (and for whom you have prayed) and let them know that they were remembered in prayer.

Are you willing to do two things: (1) Pray each day for someone you know; and (2) Contact the person for whom you prayed and let them know that you prayed for them on that day (see the "message" examples). It is as easy as that!

Sample Prayers and Messages

1. Prayer of Blessing

Dear God, I pray for (name) today and I ask that you be with her/him and pour out your blessings upon her/him. Thank you, Lord, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Message

Dear (Name): I prayed for you today. I asked God to bless you and your family. I hope you have a blessed day.

2. Prayer of Protection

Gracious God, I ask that you be with and protect my friend, (name), today. She/he is going through some difficult times. Show her/him your love and let her/him know that you care about her. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

Message

Dear (Name): I prayed for you today. I asked God to help you and to show you that people care about you. Please know that I am here for you. Have a blessed day.

3. Prayer for Discernment

Loving God, I pray that you be with (name) today as he/she faces a difficult decision. Guide him/her and show him/her the path that you have prepared. Give him/her the courage and the strength to do what is right and the faith to trust in you. For the sake of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Message

Dear (Name): I prayed for you today. I asked God to guide you through whatever situations you may be facing. I know that God will help you and I pray that God will give you the strength to trust God.

4. Prayer for Healing

God of health and healing, I ask that you be with my friend, (name), today as she/he is experiencing (issue the person is facing: e.g. health, financial, family, etc.) difficulties. Be present with her/him. Give her/him support and strength and surround her/him with your protective care. I ask these things in Jesus' name. Amen.

Message

Dear (Name): I prayed for you today. I asked God to be with you and to give you the strength and support that you need. I also asked God to surround you with God's protective care. May God provide you with what you need. Know that I will continue to pray for you.
